DtC Shipments Lead November Wine Sales

DtC shipments were the star of U.S. wine sales in November, increasing 26% to $417 million -- a new benchmark for the channel. U.S. wine sales as a whole increased a mere 2% to $3.8 billion from a year ago. Sales in off-premise channels IRI tracks showed minimal growth of 1% to $777 million. Winery hiring increased 6%. Strong demand for sales and marketing positions and vineyard workers offset weaker demand in every other subcategory.
